

HERALD'S PAGE FOR WOMEN LEADERS

LITTLE ADVENTURES IN MARRIED LIFE

LUNCHING OUT

By Katherine Brooks

Entanglements Caused by an Invitation—Why Bad Temper Get More Than Pleasant Dispositions.

"It's funny how things work out," remarked Louise as she hung up the sweater and turned away from the telephone.

"What now?" asked her husband.

"Well, I've had to accept Mrs. Atkinson's invitation to lunch, which I'd rather refuse, and had to refuse Amy Barrett's, where I really wanted to go."

"How's that?" said Mac.

"Louise came over and sat on the arm of my chair."

"I don't suppose you remember, but about two months ago Mrs. Atkinson asked me to lunch to meet her friends from Omaha who were coming to visit on their way to New York. I accepted, and put off a matinee engagement with Amy in order to go. The day before the lunch, Mrs. Atkinson had a telegram saying they had postponed their trip and so she put off the luncheon till they should arrive, though she had asked about half a dozen other women besides me. If it had been my luncheon I'd have had it just the same—imagine my being asked to go to lunch with a hostess who had asked about half a dozen other women besides me. I was left in the lurch."

"Oh, wait. That's only the beginning. Well, Mrs. Atkinson asked us all if we would consider the date open, to be kept whenever the Barrys should come. Of course, we all said yes. Every one knows she is well-remembered and nobody minded her putting off the luncheon, though we all laughed over it ourselves."

"It had just did," observed Mac.

"Don't be nasty, Alexander."

"Mac winced. Laboring under the name of Alexander Twickenham McAllister, he was at a terrible disadvantage when his wife was displeased with him. Usually she called him Mac, as his friends did, but when he was under a bad name to one or both of his children's names."

"Amy has been planning for a month to have two girls from our class at the school to lunch for a little while—just the four of us. They are all in town and we haven't met since I was married. It was to be very formal, and the company has been put off once or twice on account of other things preventing. Amy is so good natured that you can do anything you want tomorrow. I wrote back to say I had made another engagement. She had just got my note and rather than offend her, I said I had to go."

"And what about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

with her. She always understands, never takes offense and everything is always all right.

"Well, we had finally fixed on tomorrow as the two girls are leaving next week. Yesterday I had a note from Mrs. Atkinson reminding me of our open date, and saying the luncheon would be at five."

"What now?" asked her husband.

"Well, I've had to accept Mrs. Atkinson's invitation to lunch, which I'd rather refuse, and had to refuse Amy Barrett's, where I really wanted to go."

"How's that?" said Mac.

"Louise came over and sat on the arm of my chair."

"I don't suppose you remember, but about two months ago Mrs. Atkinson asked me to lunch to meet her friends from Omaha who were coming to visit on their way to New York. I accepted, and put off a matinee engagement with Amy in order to go. The day before the lunch, Mrs. Atkinson had a telegram saying they had postponed their trip and so she put off the luncheon till they should arrive, though she had asked about half a dozen other women besides me. If it had been my luncheon I'd have had it just the same—imagine my being asked to go to lunch with a hostess who had asked about half a dozen other women besides me. I was left in the lurch."

"Oh, wait. That's only the beginning. Well, Mrs. Atkinson asked us all if we would consider the date open, to be kept whenever the Barrys should come. Of course, we all said yes. Every one knows she is well-remembered and nobody minded her putting off the luncheon, though we all laughed over it ourselves."

"It had just did," observed Mac.

"Don't be nasty, Alexander."

"Mac winced. Laboring under the name of Alexander Twickenham McAllister, he was at a terrible disadvantage when his wife was displeased with him. Usually she called him Mac, as his friends did, but when he was under a bad name to one or both of his children's names."

"Amy has been planning for a month to have two girls from our class at the school to lunch for a little while—just the four of us. They are all in town and we haven't met since I was married. It was to be very formal, and the company has been put off once or twice on account of other things preventing. Amy is so good natured that you can do anything you want tomorrow. I wrote back to say I had made another engagement. She had just got my note and rather than offend her, I said I had to go."

"And what about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

"What about Amy?"

"Oh, she is so good tempered! She never mind of course, but I happen to know that she had made a caramel pudding for tomorrow, and engaged an accommodator for the day."

Louise Came Over and Sat on the Arm of His Chair.

Famous Women

Her Birthday and Yours
HENRIETTA CROSSMAN, LILLIAN, ALAN, ANNE WHITNEY.

(Copyright, 1914.)

The much talked about Queen Lillioalana, of the Hawaiian Islands, was born September 2, 1838. Her brother, King Kalakaua, had ruled with a cabinet and legislature, but when his sister assumed the throne in 1891 she tried to rule through a measure which would give her greater powers. This the government refused to do, and in 1893 she was deposed. The deposition, it was said, was brought about through the aid of the American naval forces. Effort was made to re-establish her on the throne by resident Cleveland, who felt that she was wronged.

Another celebrated woman born on September 2 is Henrietta Crossman, the American actress-famous as Mistress Moll and Sweet Kitty Bellairs. She is forty-four years old today.

Anne Whitney, who was born in Waterbury, Mass., September 2, 1821, is in many ways the most successful of all American women sculptors. Her first studio was in her father's farm where she worked out in clay every unused dimension that came before her. Before she had received any instructions whatever she worked out an ambitious figure, that of a woman, which she placed in the studio. It was so good that it was later works, showed a richness of imagination that gave great promise and induced her friends to send her abroad for European study.

Before Mrs. Whitney started out for Europe she destroyed every figure she had produced, to show that though her friends were pleased with them she was satisfied with anything she had done. Her study abroad brought wonderful results. Among her most admired works are a statue of Harriet Martineau to be seen at Wellesley College and a figure of Samuel Adams at the Capitol at Washington, a replica of which is in Adams square. At the World's Fair in Chicago, in 1893, there was a heroic statue of Harriet Beecher Stowe, the work of Miss Whitney.

Children's outfits are especially interesting as school days approach. The latest trend in adult fashions in their picturesque quaintness.

Dutch types and the quaint dress familiar in Dickens' illustrations are Kate Greenway styles. Buttons have ceased to hide behind flaps, and come out as important points in decoration, especially on the small boy's suit.

Children's outfits are especially interesting as school days approach. The latest trend in adult fashions in their picturesque quaintness.

Dutch types and the quaint dress familiar in Dickens' illustrations are Kate Greenway styles. Buttons have ceased to hide behind flaps, and come out as important points in decoration, especially on the small boy's suit.

Children's outfits are especially interesting as school days approach. The latest trend in adult fashions in their picturesque quaintness.

Dutch types and the quaint dress familiar in Dickens' illustrations are Kate Greenway styles. Buttons have ceased to hide behind flaps, and come out as important points in decoration, especially on the small boy's suit.

Children's outfits are especially interesting as school days approach. The latest trend in adult fashions in their picturesque quaintness.

Dutch types and the quaint dress familiar in Dickens' illustrations are Kate Greenway styles. Buttons have ceased to hide behind flaps, and come out as important points in decoration, especially on the small boy's suit.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Paint marks can be removed by soaking them a short time in benzine and turpentine, then rubbing them with emery paper or a little pulverized pumice stone.

If dumplings are kept boiling steadily from the time they are in the pot until they are taken out they will be much lighter. Do not take the lid off often after that time.

A great deal of satisfaction may be obtained by using an asbestos glove when handling pots and pans that are hot.

When stewing chicken, a piece of onion added when it is stewing will add much to the flavor, and the onion taste will not be noticed.

Cake icing will not crack when cut if a little thick cream is added to it. Allow one teaspoonful to each white of egg.

White is quite as correct as black for mourning wear in midsummer, but white mourning is more conspicuous for business enterprise of every sort. Merchants should find the conditions especially good for pushing commercial ventures of large scope.

It is a time especially stimulating to those who depend upon muscular energy. Athletes are under a fortunate guidance today.

There is a sign interpreted as favorable for the ambitions of United States Senators who are independent in their views. The old, however, are subject to influences held to be unwise.

Since Uranus is believed to govern the psychic powers the adverse aspect of the planet is supposed to be most unpleasant in its influence upon the mind. The aspect is said to operate to cause irritability, restlessness and discontent.

While the rule prevails domestic relations are likely to be strained and natives (persons born when the sun was in Aquarius) should be especially guarded in their conduct.

This is a fairly good time for presenting new plays or taking steps in any venture which appeals to the public taste. Anxious for the King of England multiply, according to the astrologer, India will cause much trouble within a short time.

Chicago is under a rule foreshadowing labor troubles and financial depression. St. Louis is subject to influences which are said to indicate great prosperity in trade.

Persons whose birthdate it is have a happy omen for the year. Men will prosper in business. Both men and women are warned against the machinations of false friends.

Children born on this day are likely to be orderly, patient and persevering. These subjects of Virgo have Mercury as their ruling planet, and they usually are gifted. They may have a taste for art as well as agriculture. Many collectors of art objects are born under this sign.

Louise Came Over and Sat on the Arm of His Chair.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Paint marks can be removed by soaking them a short time in benzine and turpentine, then rubbing them with emery paper or a little pulverized pumice stone.

If dumplings are kept boiling steadily from the time they are in the pot until they are taken out they will be much lighter. Do not take the lid off often after that time.

A great deal of satisfaction may be obtained by using an asbestos glove when handling pots and pans that are hot.

When stewing chicken, a piece of onion added when it is stewing will add much to the flavor, and the onion taste will not be noticed.

Cake icing will not crack when cut if a little thick cream is added to it. Allow one teaspoonful to each white of egg.

White is quite as correct as black for mourning wear in midsummer, but white mourning is more conspicuous for business enterprise of every sort. Merchants should find the conditions especially good for pushing commercial ventures of large scope.

It is a time especially stimulating to those who depend upon muscular energy. Athletes are under a fortunate guidance today.

There is a sign interpreted as favorable for the ambitions of United States Senators who are independent in their views. The old, however, are subject to influences held to be unwise.

Since Uranus is believed to govern the psychic powers the adverse aspect of the planet is supposed to be most unpleasant in its influence upon the mind. The aspect is said to operate to cause irritability, restlessness and discontent.

While the rule prevails domestic relations are likely to be strained and natives (persons born when the sun was in Aquarius) should be especially guarded in their conduct.

This is a fairly good time for presenting new plays or taking steps in any venture which appeals to the public taste. Anxious for the King of England multiply, according to the astrologer, India will cause much trouble within a short time.

Chicago is under a rule foreshadowing labor troubles and financial depression. St. Louis is subject to influences which are said to indicate great prosperity in trade.

Persons whose birthdate it is have a happy omen for the year. Men will prosper in business. Both men and women are warned against the machinations of false friends.

Children born on this day are likely to be orderly, patient and persevering. These subjects of Virgo have Mercury as their ruling planet, and they usually are gifted. They may have a taste for art as well as agriculture. Many collectors of art objects are born under this sign.

Louise Came Over and Sat on the Arm of His Chair.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Paint marks can be removed by soaking them a short time in benzine and turpentine, then rubbing them with emery paper or a little pulverized pumice stone.

If dumplings are kept boiling steadily from the time they are in the pot until they are taken out they will be much lighter. Do not take the lid off often after that time.

A great deal of satisfaction may be obtained by using an asbestos glove when handling pots and pans that are hot.

When stewing chicken, a piece of onion added when it is stewing will add much to the flavor, and the onion taste will not be noticed.

Cake icing will not crack when cut if a little thick cream is added to it. Allow one teaspoonful to each white of egg.

White is quite as correct as black for mourning wear in midsummer, but white mourning is more conspicuous for business enterprise of every sort. Merchants should find the conditions especially good for pushing commercial ventures of large scope.

It is a time especially stimulating to those who depend upon muscular energy. Athletes are under a fortunate guidance today.

There is a sign interpreted as favorable for the ambitions of United States Senators who are independent in their views. The old, however, are subject to influences held to be unwise.

Since Uranus is believed to govern the psychic powers the adverse aspect of the planet is supposed to be most unpleasant in its influence upon the mind. The aspect is said to operate to cause irritability, restlessness and discontent.

While the rule prevails domestic relations are likely to be strained and natives (persons born when the sun was in Aquarius) should be especially guarded in their conduct.

This is a fairly good time for presenting new plays or taking steps in any venture which appeals to the public taste. Anxious for the King of England multiply, according to the astrologer, India will cause much trouble within a short time.

Chicago is under a rule foreshadowing labor troubles and financial depression. St. Louis is subject to influences which are said to indicate great prosperity in trade.

Persons whose birthdate it is have a happy omen for the year. Men will prosper in business. Both men and women are warned against the machinations of false friends.

Children born on this day are likely to be orderly, patient and persevering. These subjects of Virgo have Mercury as their ruling planet, and they usually are gifted. They may have a taste for art as well as agriculture. Many collectors of art objects are born under this sign.

Louise Came Over and Sat on the Arm of His Chair.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Paint marks can be removed by soaking them a short time in benzine and turpentine, then rubbing them with emery paper or a little pulverized pumice stone.

If dumplings are kept boiling steadily from the time they are in the pot until they are taken out they will be much lighter. Do not take the lid off often after that time.

A great deal of satisfaction may be obtained by using an asbestos glove when handling pots and pans that are hot.

When stewing chicken, a piece of onion added when it is stewing will add much to the flavor, and the onion taste will not be noticed.

Cake icing will not crack when cut if a little thick cream is added to it. Allow one teaspoonful to each white of egg.

White is quite as correct as black for mourning wear in midsummer, but white mourning is more conspicuous for business enterprise of every sort. Merchants should find the conditions especially good for pushing commercial ventures of large scope.

It is a time especially stimulating to those who depend upon muscular energy. Athletes are under a fortunate guidance today.

There is a sign interpreted as favorable for the ambitions of United States Senators who are independent in their views. The old, however, are subject to influences held to be unwise.

Since Uranus is believed to govern the psychic powers the adverse aspect of the planet is supposed to be most unpleasant in its influence upon the mind. The aspect is said to operate to cause irritability, restlessness and discontent.

While the rule prevails domestic relations are likely to be strained and natives (persons born when the sun was in Aquarius) should be especially guarded in their conduct.

This is a fairly good time for presenting new plays or taking steps in any venture which appeals to the public taste. Anxious for the King of England multiply, according to the astrologer, India will cause much trouble within a short time.

Chicago is under a rule foreshadowing labor troubles and financial depression. St. Louis is subject to influences which are said to indicate great prosperity in trade.

Persons whose birthdate it is have a happy omen for the year. Men will prosper in business. Both men and women are warned against the machinations of false friends.

Children born on this day are likely to be orderly, patient and persevering. These subjects of Virgo have Mercury as their ruling planet, and they usually are gifted. They may have a taste for art as well as agriculture. Many collectors of art objects are born under this sign.

Louise Came Over and Sat on the Arm of His Chair.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Paint marks can be removed by soaking them a short time in benzine and turpentine, then rubbing them with emery paper or a little pulverized pumice stone.

If dumplings are kept boiling steadily from the time they are in the pot until they are taken out they will be much lighter. Do not take the lid off often after that time.

A great deal of satisfaction may be obtained by using an asbestos glove when handling pots and pans that are hot.

When stewing chicken, a piece of onion added when it is stewing will add much to the flavor, and the onion taste will not be noticed.

Cake icing will not crack when cut if a little thick cream is added to it. Allow one teaspoonful to each white of egg.

White is quite as correct as black for mourning wear in midsummer, but white mourning is more conspicuous for business enterprise of every sort. Merchants should find the conditions especially good for pushing commercial ventures of large scope.

It is a time especially stimulating to those who depend upon muscular energy. Athletes are under a fortunate guidance today.

There is a sign interpreted as favorable for the ambitions of United States Senators who are independent in their views. The old, however, are subject to influences held to be unwise.

Since Uranus is believed to govern the psychic powers the adverse aspect of the planet is supposed to be most unpleasant in its influence upon the mind. The aspect is said to operate to cause irritability, restlessness and discontent.

While the rule prevails domestic relations are likely to be strained and natives (persons born when the sun was in Aquarius) should be especially guarded in their conduct.

This is a fairly good time for presenting new plays or taking steps in any venture which appeals to the public taste. Anxious for the King of England multiply, according to the astrologer, India will cause much trouble within a short time.

Chicago is under a rule foreshadowing labor troubles and financial depression. St. Louis is subject to influences which are said to indicate great prosperity in trade.

Persons whose birthdate it is have a happy omen for the year. Men will prosper in business. Both men and women are warned against the machinations of false friends.

Children born on this day are likely to be orderly, patient and persevering. These subjects of Virgo have Mercury as their ruling planet, and they usually are gifted. They may have a taste for art as well as agriculture. Many collectors of art objects are born under this sign.

Louise Came Over and Sat on the Arm of His Chair.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Paint marks can be removed by soaking them a short time in benzine and turpentine, then rubbing them with emery paper or a little pulverized pumice stone.

If dumplings are kept boiling steadily from the time they are in the pot until they are taken out they will be much lighter. Do not take the lid off often after that time.

A great deal of satisfaction may be obtained by using an asbestos glove when handling pots and pans that are hot.

When stewing chicken, a piece of onion added when it is stewing will add much to the flavor, and the onion taste will not be noticed.

Cake icing will not crack when cut if a little thick cream is added to it. Allow one teaspoonful to each white of egg.

White is quite as correct as black for mourning wear in midsummer, but white mourning is more conspicuous for business enterprise of every sort. Merchants should find the conditions especially good for pushing commercial ventures of large scope.

It is a time especially stimulating to those who depend upon muscular energy. Athletes are under a fortunate guidance today.

There is a sign interpreted as favorable for the ambitions of United States Senators who are independent in their views. The old, however, are subject to influences held to be unwise.

Since Uranus is believed to govern the psychic powers the adverse aspect of the planet is supposed to be most unpleasant in its influence upon the mind. The aspect is said to operate to cause irritability, restlessness and discontent.

While the rule prevails domestic relations are likely to be strained and natives (persons born when the sun was in Aquarius) should be especially guarded in their conduct.

This is a fairly good time for presenting new plays or taking steps in any venture which appeals to the public taste. Anxious for the King of England multiply, according to the astrologer, India will cause much trouble within a short time.

Chicago is under a rule foreshadowing labor troubles and financial depression. St. Louis is subject to influences which are said to indicate great prosperity in trade.